MHP and osapiens: working together for more sustainable impact

- New strategic partnership between MHP and osapiens, a leading platform operator for digital ESG solutions
- The platform helps companies implement their sustainability compliance requirements as easily as possible
- The overall aim of cooperation is to support companies in their ecological transformation in a cost-efficient and holistic manner

Ludwigsburg – Global ESG guidelines require companies to pay more attention to the environmental impacts of their actions and to report on them comprehensively. To be able to implement the commitments in the areas of environmental, social and governance (ESG), they not only need an intelligent sustainability strategy and efficient processes, but also, above all, powerful digitalization tools. They can be used to record, assess and consolidate all relevant key figures and measures, from the source system.

Management and IT consultancy MHP and osapiens, one of the leading ESG platform providers, have now agreed on a strategic partnership for new solutions from a single ecosystem.

Markus Wambach, Group COO at MHP, says: "With our management and IT expertise in the field of sustainability and the digital solutions from osapiens, we enable companies to meet all regulatory sustainability obligations in a simple, efficient and purposeful manner. We support them throughout their ecological transformation – from strategy development to practical implementation. But that's not all: at the same time, we increase our customers' economic profitability through efficiency gains."

Alberto Zamora, CEO at osapiens, adds: "The partnership with MHP means a great deal to us. There are few companies that have such expertise in the field of sustainability in industry. We believe that together we can help many companies to cope with the bureaucracy through automation and AI, and to not just see the topic of sustainability as a cost factor, but also use it as an advantage."

The partnership facilitates the digital and sustainable transformation of companies with the unique digital platform, the osapiens Hub, and MHP's in-depth expertise in the field of sustainability. Alexander Appel, Manager Sustainability Transformation at MHP, adds: "With the digital mindset of osapiens and MHP and our industry expertise, we can not only manage the complexity of sustainability regulation efficiently, but also focus on the speed of transformation – for economic success and with real sustainable impact. Totally in keeping with the MHP mission: We create digital futures with sustainable impact for the world!"
